

Heart and Soul

One springtime sunny day in 1989,
I happened to meet her and right away I felt fine.
We fell in love and we swore we'd never part,
and little by little I won your love and I won your heart.

We built us a home where we could hold tight,
The moments we weren't together were moments without joy.
But the nights became longer, much longer than the days,
I'm nearer to my wishes than you've ever been to myself.

Heart and Soul. You gave me your poise and your rest
And a little piece of endlessness. Heart and Soul.

The things I didn't like in the past I did them first,
And the things that I'd love, I saved until last.
Today I eat the sweetest things and leave the rest alone,
I've found the trust and courage much more than I'll ever need.

Long time I lay awake in the middle of the night and I'd watched you and I don't wanna hold you tight.
A lot of sorrows were in the air,
I'd always thought you're my shelter from the storm.
