

It's raining cats and dogs again, I don't wanna go out of the house
It's the same thing every night and day, the sun doesn't shine anymore
Through the window purely the water flows, the bullshit thing must be leaky somehow
I wanna know what the goggle-box shows only with TV still I can live further now
I used to think my life was passin' me by. Well, just I was about ready to curl up and die
TV, TV, without I cannot be. TV is my queen, and she's my everything!
I'm wonderin' 'bout programs quality and choice, now I never wanna leave my house
The kind you just can't get for free 'cause there's just so much for me to see
I turn on the tube, gawk from east to west can't make up my mind, it give me my rest, there is Only a thing this one brightly shines full of pity I remember past times
Can't live without, well I love my TV, the greatest thing that's ever happened to me
TV, TV, without I cannot be. TV is my queen, and she's my everything!
TV, TV, without I cannot be. If you need to find me, you know where I'll be.
But sometimes in the night when spirits comes near I'm lying in my bed alone with my fear. I wish somebody should be with me
